VERMONT BOY GOES TO OXFORD.

J. C. Sherburne Sailed Yesterday for Liverpool as a Rhodes Scholar.

J. C. Sherburne of Poufret, this state, sailed yesterday for Liverpool being one of the American young men who have been granted scholarships at Oxford University.

The steamer Ivernia, which sailed for Liverpool Tuesday from Boston, carried 35 young Americans who have won Rhodes scholarships at Oxford. The party represents all sections of the United States, and 20 state rooms were set aside for their use on the promenade deck. The gathering of this interesting party is due to the happy thought on the part of Paul Nixon of Braintree, who will go as a representative of Connecticut. He wrote to Oxford early in the summer asking for the names and addresses of the American winners of scholarships. This was forthcoming, whereupon he wrote each of his associates, suggesting that it would be pleasant if they could travel together as a family party from Boston to Liverpool. The idea struck others favorably, and most of them signified their willingness to sail from Boston. The first general meeting of the party took place on board the Ivernia, as some of its members did not arrive until just before sailing.

Sherburne graduated from the University of Vermont last June.

David Harum Coming.

One of the most important announcements of the season is to the effect that "David Harum" with its New York production and an extremely strong cast will be presented at the Barre Opera House, October 4. This simple announcement will awaken anticipations of pleasure in the minds of many for nearly every one has read Westcott's book and found much enjoyment in it. That they will want to see David, Aunt Polly, Deacon Perkins and other characters who move through the story on the stage seems but natural. The New York run of the play was a record-breaker in the matter of receipts and it claimed attention there for sixteen weeks. For six weeks it ran in Chicago and for two months in Boston. The adaptation of the book was made by Ripley and M. W. Hitchcock, and they are said to have taken very few liberties with it, adhering very closely to the story woven so skillfully by Westcott. All of the scenes are laid in Homerville, New York, and the play is divided into three acts. From appearances it is not unlikely that the play will meet with a warm reception here, and its presentation will be largely attended.

BIG CLASS AT U. V. M.

Conservative Estimate Places Number at 125. Notes of the College.

Burlington, Sept. 28.—The University of Vermont opened her doors for another term this morning at nine o'clock when the entering class took their entrance examination in English at the Williams Science hall. The entering class will be the largest class in the history of the college as the conservative estimate places the number at 125.

This year there will be few changes in the faculty. Alfred R. Wightman, A. B. of Brown and A. M. of Harvard, has been appointed instructor in Greek to succeed Dr. Tonks, resigned, and Prof. DeFour, who has much practical experience, will fill the place made vacant by the resignation of Prof. Barrows, who has accepted a position on the U. S. government hydraulic survey. Prof. Butterfield, who has been continuing his studies at Columbia University, will resume his position in the civil engineering department, and Prof. Jones will be again in the botanical laboratories after a year of research and travel in Europe.

It will not be possible to occupy the new medical college until another year but rapid progress is being made in the erection of the building, the basement and first story being now completed and it is expected that the building will be roofed this fall.

Ainsworth field, which has been purchased by the college, will be partially fitted up this fall. A cinder path will be laid and the grandstand formerly at Howard Park will be erected but the field will not be ready for use until next spring for the base ball season.

Gridiron Notes.

Quill, formerly of Amherst, is a leading candidate for halfback at Yale.

Wesleyan will play Yale, Princeton, Columbia and Brown inside of two weeks.

Whalen, who played fullback at Wiliston last year, is being tried out as a punter by Coach Robinson of Brown. The Providence prospects are for a tight eleven.

With all sympathy for Morgan Bowman of Yale in his injury, it must be said that the announcement of his retirement for the season must age a bit before it becomes entirely credible.

The big men on the Princeton team who are back this year are Short, center; Cooney, left tackle, and Dillon, left guard. The three seem in excellent condition. Several strong men are making good bids for De Witt's old place at right guard. Martin, 1907, who played on the scrub team against De Witt last year, seems to have a good show, although Rafferty is no mean antagonist. De Witt himself is coaching.

Columbia, forgetting that the season is an infant yet, is already lamenting the "weakness" of her team. Speed and line strength were lacking in Saturday's game with Union college. Both necessary—and by no means unattainable. It is fair guessing that "Morley's team," which hopes to close the season by spoiling "Yost's machine" from Michigan on Thanksgiving day, will give its admirers plenty to chuckle over when the campaign is well on.

SIGSBEE EXPLAINS.

Cartagena's Smeared Mud on the American Consulate.

Colon, Sept. 28.—The American consulate at Cartagena having twice recently been smeared with mud, Rear Admiral Sigsbee, with his flagship, the Newark, was ordered to proceed to Cartagena and investigate the circumstances.

In a communication to the governor, Luis Paton, Admiral Sigsbee said in part:

"I find your expressions of regret for the acts of indecency on behalf of yourself and your government satisfactory, but that sufficient publicity has not been given to them. I suggest additional precautions to prevent a recurrence of such incidents and fuller publicity of the government's expressions of regret in order to avoid a friendly visit assuming a more difficult feature."

Governor Paton complied by reiterating his regrets.
